NOTICE

(Regarding students who have not gotten the chance to participate in any internship)

It is hereby informed to all concerned students of FYUGP 4th Semester that in view of providing equitable opportunities to students who have not yet had the chance to participate in any internship, you are hereby asked to submit an application to the college office at the earliest.

Further, those who have already submitted an application earlier and have still not been selected for any internship are also asked to submit a fresh application.

This is going to be the last internship opportunity. After this no more arrangement of internships will be made available.
